

EYFS Curriculum Policy

Date Approved: March 2025

Date for Review: March 2026

Approved By: Senior Leadership Team

Our integrity based curriculum starts right from the Early Years:

- Integrity of sound Early Years practises that provide essential, foundational child-led learning experiences that are steeped in opportunities to experiment and develop rich language skills.
- Integrity of our commitment to teaching, supporting and strengthening the Prime Areas of learning, specifically Communication and Language.
- Integrity of providing a purposeful, themed approach to the curriculum that is bespoke and responsive to the needs of our children and our community.
- Integrity of progressive content that is appropriate for each age and stage of development across the Foundation Stage; using the ‘stay in your lane’ approach to encourage depth of learning and minimal learning gaps.
- Integrity of introducing our school values thoroughly, to begin the journey of nurturing informed, caring and healthy humans.
- Integrity of providing in Early Years the building blocks of learning and vocabulary needed to access the Key Stage 1 curriculum successfully.

Why do we use a theme approach in our Foundation Stage?

- A theme approach allows us to introduce and explore language in meaningful contexts, using planned and progressive vocabulary that is woven through real life experiences.
- A theme approach allows us to plan and revise the implementation of our delivery on a half termly basis in response to the question, ‘What do our children need to learn now?’
- A theme approach allows practitioners freedom to amend learning experiences ‘in the moment’ to ensure learning is relevant, stimulating and purposeful.
- A theme approach allows us to respond to cohort and community specific needs by adapting focus content when necessary and celebrating diversity.
- A theme approach allows us to facilitate the introduction of our school values in a natural way, through hands on experiences, where children are involved in their own decision making and guided by the principles of our values.

Why does Communication and Language matter in our Foundation Stage?

- Early language development and communication skills are recognised as primary indicators of child wellbeing, due to the link between language and other social, emotional and learning outcomes.
- Language contributes towards a child’s ability to; manage emotions, communicate feelings, establish and maintain relationships, think symbolically and learn to read and write.
- Effective communication is underpinned by the two foundational skills of listening and understanding. Supporting children to interpret different spoken sounds, by listening and tuning in, enables them then to develop the process of understanding what is being communicated to them in order to comprehend ideas and vocabulary, and to navigate successful social interactions.
- Without timely intervention in this Prime Area, children and young people are at risk of poor outcomes across their life course.

How does our indoor learning environment enhance children’s learning?

- Our home style environment supports children’s self-regulation as they are able to relax, explore and play among familiar objects that promote curiosity and a deep level learning of the world around them.
- Cozy nooks are created to enhance the sense of a nurturing ‘home’ environment, through which children feel safe to independently explore and tolerate their own mistakes.
- Resources and activities are set up to look ‘incidental’ and part of the ‘home’ environment and are situated logically to promote purposeful play. For example, construction resources might be placed in the Home Corner rather than in an exclusive area.

- Irresistible and high-quality activities and resources are used to guide, support and strengthen children's communication and language skills. We prioritise maintaining the environment and making timely changes to ensure that children continue to develop new vocabulary and practice key speech and language skills.
- Dim lighting and muted backing paper, such as brown postage paper, on display boards is used to support children's concentration and brightly coloured, plastic toys and resources are used minimally in the environment.

How does our outdoor learning environment enhance children's learning?

- Our outdoor environment gives children the freedom to explore different ways of 'being', feeling, behaving and interacting; they have physical, mental and emotional space; they have room and permission to be active, interactive, messy, noisy and work on a large scale where they may feel less directed by adults.
- Outdoors is a dynamic, flexible and versatile place where children can choose, create, change and be in charge of their play environment. The space itself as well as resources, layout, planning and routines are versatile, open-ended and flexible to maximise their value to the child.
- Our outdoor provision offers children many opportunities to experience the real world, have first-hand experiences, do real tasks and do what adults do, including being involved in the care of the outdoor space.
- Our provision for learning outdoors is responsive to the needs of very active learners; those who need gross sensory stimulation or space away from others. Outdoors is a vital learning environment to ensure our provision is inclusive.
- Our outdoor provision provides real contact with the elements, seasons and the natural world, the range of perspectives, sensations and environments and the daily change, uncertainty, surprise and excitement all contribute to a special and deeply engaging learning experience.

How is our curriculum organised?

Little Acorns (2-year-old provision)

- Planned half termly vocabulary.
- Daily carpet time to support the learning of key vocabulary.
- Daily singing and stories.
- Weekly Forest Learning experience.
- Learning environments that are immersed in key vocabulary in the form of tangible objects and opportunities to manipulate objects i.e. push, pull, jump.

F1

- Planned daily vocabulary centered themed experiences.
- Daily access to outdoor provision.
- Daily singing and stories.
- Weekly Forest Learning experience.
- Weekly cooking experience.
- Weekly parent event (Family Friday).
- Learning environments that are set up daily to purposefully strengthen the Prime Areas, with an emphasis on Communication and Language, to provide children with the opportunity to apply vocabulary introduced in the themed experiences.

F2

- Planned daily vocabulary centered themed experiences.
- Daily access to outdoor provision.
- Daily singing and stories.
- Weekly RE and PE taught as discreet subjects. Our RE curriculum reflects global celebrations throughout the year and is therefore relevant and purposeful.

- Learning environments that are set up daily to purposefully strengthen the Prime Areas, with an emphasis on Communication and Language, to provide children with the opportunity to apply vocabulary introduced in the themed experiences.
- Half termly Values Days exploring each of our key school values in turn, to underpin our overall curriculum.

How is our curriculum planned and delivered?

Little Acorns

- The Little Acorns Planned Vocabulary Overview is used by adults to plan the learning environment and weekly focused activities.
- Texts are chosen carefully to extend and stimulate vocabulary and sentence building.

F1 and F2

- Our themed curriculum has the following key documents that ensure breadth of coverage and progression across the Foundation Stage:
  - Theme Curriculum Overviews
  - EYFS Long Term Theme Coverage
  - EYFS Progression Mapping Across the Seven Areas of Learning
  - FS2 RE Overview
  - EYFS to Year 1 FOSS Progression Mapping
  - EYFS to Year 1 Vocabulary Progressive Overview
- The EYFS Long Term Theme Plans detail vocabulary that ensures appropriate progression from F1 to F2, and is used to select appropriate language to enhance learning themes. The chosen vocabulary becomes our overarching learning objective for each learning experience. The content for each learning experience is then mapped out for the half term and practitioners plan experiences to support the teaching of the chosen vocabulary in many different contexts.
- There are six different themes across the year, one per half term. Themes are chosen according to what the children need to learn, but also reflect the seasons and celebrations or events at different times of the year. This supports natural and more meaningful learning experiences, where the vocabulary introduced is more likely to be heard beyond the classroom, enabling children to make links and deepen their learning.
- High quality, enabling and irresistible indoor and outdoor learning environments provide the backbone of our curriculum. Frequently changed activities and resources are chosen to support the planned learning theme across all areas of the EYFS and to be in tune with the children's current fascinations.
- Quality adult-child interactions provide essential scaffolds to children's learning by giving them just enough help to achieve something they cannot do independently; supporting them to think, discuss and plan ahead. Practitioners spend time listening to children and having conversations with them to develop communication and move learning on through highly skilled communication strategies.
- Quality texts are used to provide extra stimulus to support each learning theme and are read to the children frequently during the half term.
- Our focus on a progressive program of songs and rhymes, delivered alongside Makaton signs, offers the children a creative way to explore the structure of spoken language, sounds and patterns, and widen their growing vocabulary.

How is our curriculum assessed?

- Children's assessment profiles at this stage in their development can be very spiky and small gaps can open and close continually as they learn and develop. Our assessment process is about identifying significant gaps in children's learning, where extra support is needed to make expected progress.
- Practitioners assess children's learning continually through a process of observations and interactions. 'In the moment', as well as more strategic decisions, are made to adapt learning experiences according to key gaps that are noticed.
- Observation Checkpoints from Development Matters are used to notice whether a child is developing significant gaps. Adults then make decisions about what sort of extra help is needed. This is a formative process and spending time with the children is at the heart of this form of assessment. Development Matters guides, but does not replace, practitioner's judgements.
- Summative Assessments take place at the end of each term. Teachers and Key Persons assess whether a child has 'significant gaps' or 'no significant gaps'. These judgements then inform to strategic decisions, future planning and use of resources.
- Working closely with parents and carers is also key to our assessments. Through sensitive dialogue with families, adults in school can understand individual children's needs better, allowing for appropriate support to be put in place where necessary.
- The formal assessment tool WellComm is used to specifically screen children's communication and language skills when they enter F1 and is repeated termly as needed.

How is our curriculum shared with parents?

- A strong and respectful partnership with parents sets the scene for children to thrive in the Early Years and beyond. We aim to know and understand all children and their families and give them clear information linked to learning and progress.
- During each transition point, a Curriculum Overview is shared with parents.
- At the beginning of each half term, Curriculum Newsletters are sent home detailing learning and experiences that will take place over the coming weeks.
- At the beginning of each term, parents are invited to Termly Learning Celebrations to share children's successes and progress.
- Each term, parents are invited to 'Seeing is Believing' events linked to the learning theme that is taking place.

How is our curriculum progressive across the Foundation Stage and into Key Stage 1?

- In our 2-year-old provision (Little Acorns) the curriculum centers around exposure to core vocabulary, and a commitment to closing the language gap as early as possible for our disadvantaged children, to enable a successful transition into F1.
- Children in F1 and F2 both approach learning through themed curriculums and through content that is carefully planned to build on experiences from one year to the next, and to foster an initial curiosity and creativity around learning.
In F1, the bulk of the learning content focusses children on their immediate environment and establishing a sense of self.
- In F2, children begin to consider the wider world more, their connection with others and consideration of ideas beyond what is tangible.
- Visible progression can be seen in adaptations made to the different learning environments throughout the Foundation Stage, reflecting the children's growing independence at each stage and their appropriate age specific learning experiences.

- Progressive vocabulary is purposefully planned throughout the Foundation Stage, repeating at times to allow for secure consolidation and application, appropriate to each age range. This allows for essential building blocks between Early Years and Key Stage 1 to be established, through sound understanding of key subject specific vocabulary that enables successful transition to the demands of the National Curriculum.
- Early Years Foundation Subjects and Science (FOSS) Progression Mapping ensures the development of specific key skills and knowledge found within the Early Years curriculum that are considered precursors to learning within Key Stage 1. These elements, however, are never used as the primary example of preparation for individual academic subjects.
- In the Early Years, essential foundations are laid to explore and develop our school values, providing a bridge into Key Stage 1, so children begin Year 1 being able to consider our values in more depth as they enter a new phase of maturity.

How is our curriculum monitored?

- At the end of each learning theme, we gather together as an Early Years partnership to focus on successes and areas for development. We consider the impact of the texts used, the chosen vocabulary and the individual learning experiences.
- Quality Assurance activities are carried out each half term by the Foundation Leader and findings are shared in a timely manner individually, as a team or as a partnership as appropriate.
- Subject Specialists review how their subject is represented in the Early Years, and bridges successfully into Key Stage 1, at least every two years as part of their Spotlight Quality Assurance activities.

The Natural World	Listen and begin to respond to adult led simple questions, making statements in response. Explore with curiosity in the environment, adult support to make changes/test ideas. Make statements about what I can see/hear/smell/touch. Experience objects/equipment through use in the environment. Give my opinion on exploration of my environment. Identify and name some simple body parts. Use my senses to explore. Identify animals through exploration of my environment. Identify animals linked to the seasons and my natural environment. Taste healthy foods and explore our likes and dislikes in cooking/baking experiences. Listen to an adult talk about 'healthy' and 'unhealthy' foods during practical experiences. Explore plants in the environment. Identify some similarities and differences in our natural environment. Use my senses to explore plants/trees/things that grow. Plant seeds and observe growth over time. Explore materials using my senses. Explore and give statements about the texture of different materials. Explore the properties of different materials in my environment.

Creating with Materials	Making patterns and pictures using a range of resources. Explore a range of drawing tools freely. Explore colour and colour mixing. Know that marks can be made using IT tools. Explore different textures freely. Explore different materials freely to develop ideas about how to use them and what to make. Explore different printing materials including some body parts (hands, feet, fingertips). Explore the possibilities of 3D shapes. Play with different shapes, sizes and materials to make fun creations. Start to figure out how parts fit together. Choose and use toys and materials to make things, sometimes with help. Use crayons, markers and brushes to draw and decorate. With help, try using scissors to cut paper and make simple shapes. Play with building blocks and try stacking them to make simple structures. Look at my art and say if I like it. Show my friends what I made. Touch different fabrics to feel their textures. Use fabric scraps to create simple designs. Use simple tools like child-safe scissors with adult assistance.
Being Imaginative &amp; Expressive	Remember and sing an entire song. Explore the sounds of a range of instruments. Respond to commands such as stop and start. Take turns when playing music. Recognise when sounds are long or short. Recognise when sounds are loud or quiet. Turn towards music I like. Move to music that I like.
